Mrs. George Liebl, Sr. Passes Away At Home

Mrs. Anna Liebl, age 80, widow of the late George Liebl, Sr., passed away at her home, 814 St. Clair avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 after several weeks of illness.

Mrs. Liebl was born Sept. 2, 1860, the daughter of John and Ursula Kroeff. She attended Holy Name school, and on July 24, 1883, she was married to George Liebl, Sr., at Holy Name church by the Rev. Mr. Haider.

On July 24, 1933, the couple celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Mr. Liebl died April 1, 1938. The union was blessed by eight children, five sons and three daughters, all of whom survive.

They are:

George, Jr., Edmund, Allan, and Frank, all of Sheboygan and Leo, of St. Francis Seminary, St. Francis, Wis., Mrs. John Maersch Sr., Miss Angeline and Jennie of Sheboygan. Other survivors are 12 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, one brother, Frank Kroeff of Ft. Wayne, Ind., three sisters, Mrs. Mary Knauf and Mrs. Charles Ulrich of Sheboygan, and Sister M. Hormistas, of Milwaukee. Two brothers and a sister preceded her in death.

She was a faithful member of Holy Name church and the St. Ann's Altar and Mother society and the Third Order of St. Francis. A good, kind and loving mother, she was much devoted to her home and family.

Funeral services will be held Saturday morning at 8:30 a.m. at the Robert H. Kroos funeral home, and at 9 o'clock with a requiem mass at Holy Name church. The Rt. Rev Msgr. Philipp Dries will officiate, and burial will be in the family lot in Calvary cemetery. Friends may view the body from 7:30 p.m. this evening until time of services.
